OFF DAY AT EMPIRE CITY

Heavy Rain Makes the Track Muddy and Racing Poor.

Teddy R. an Easy Winner of the Feature Race—Northcliff a Good Mud Runner.

YONKERS, N. Y., July 25.—A featureless card and a muddy track kept the better horses out of action at Empire City today, but the platers with mud-running ability turned out in large numbers to make the sport interesting. A big crowd was on hand to watch the racing in spite of the threatening weather.

The feature position on the card was assigned to the second division of the Richmond Purse, a selling dash at a mile and seventy yards, for three-year-olds and over. By the time Valor and Ten Buttons had been withdrawn, there were only five left to face the starter. J. B. McKee's Teddy R was easily the best in the going and the only real contest was that between Knight of the Heather and Sea Mint for second place. The Casey plater took it by a nose. Jockey J. Merimee, who rode the winner, guided the plater in an exceptionally confident manner. He allowed the colt to drop so far behind the leaders, while Sea Mint was burning up the track out in front, that it seemed as if the McKee starter was completely out of contention. He made his move when turning out of the backstretch, however, and, passing the horses in front of him one by one, forged to the front in the stretch and drew away into a five-lengths lead by the time the finish was reached. Trevelyan finished fourth and Sailing Along last.

PIRATE GOLD DISAPPOINTS.

The largest field of the day faced the post in the third race, over the about three-quarters course. Four of the original sixteen carded were withdrawn, but this left an even dozen to fight it out. The race was a condition sprint for three-year-olds and over, nonwinners of two races, but all in the field were three-year-olds. Pirate Gold, the Greentree Stable's highly regarded colt, which was well thought of as a Preakness Stakes candidate early in the year, was one of the good horses in the field. The Oakridge Stable's Northcliff, making his first start of the year, raced to his best form and won easily by three lengths from Jaunebar, with Dan Bolling in third place. Blue Brush began in front, but was soon headed by Jaunebar, which held the lead momentarily until Northcliff moved up and passed him. Dan Bolling finished gamely to dispose of the tiring Pirate Gold for the short end of the purse, but Jaunebar held second place easily by three lengths.

The best finish of the day came in the fifth race, a condition dash at a mile and a sixteenth. Spugs, racing in the colors of W. Kearns, lasted to win by a head from Queen Blonde, with Maize only a neck farther back in third place. Breuning's ride on the winner was not exactly masterly. He started to use the whip desperately on Spugs while he held a five lengths lead when three-eighths out.

EDICT AT HOME IN GOING.

The Rancocas Stable's Jim Gaffney filly Edict, found the going just right in the first race at five-eighths for two-year-olds. James Butler's Driftwood started away from the barrier in front, but Edict soon headed her and Fator easily kept in front for the rest of the distance. Sunday Best held third place in the running and when Driftwood began to give way in the stretch passed her to take second place easily by two lengths. Paula Shay easily disposed of the tiring Driftwood in the final eighth to take third place.

Quesada, Juanebar and Wayward Lady were all withdrawn from the first division of the Richmond purse, which was run as the second race, leaving Bridesman, Normal and Episode to contend the issue.

T. J. Healy will return to New York tomorrow after a trip to Saratoga to inspect the horses of R. T. Wilson and W. J. Salmon.

Jockey G. Carroll was set down by the stewards for three days for rough riding in the fourth race.

Lady Zeus was claimed out of the fifth race by M. Grant for $1,550.

In the absence of trainer Fred Taral, who has left for Saratoga, Runleigh, racing for the Hillside Stable, and High Prince of the Riviera Stable were saddled by W. Knapp and J. Loftus respectively.

John Sanford, Frank R. Hitchcock and Joseph E. Widener arrived from abroad on the liner Majestic Tuesday.

A. H. Morris and Frank J. Bryan, stewards of the meeting, were seen in earnest conversation with trainer D. R. McDaniel in the clubhouse prior to the races. They questioned him, it is understood, regarding the report that he had picked up a sponge from the track, which was alleged to have been ejected from the nostril of the filly Emotion, prior to the last race Monday.

Lawrence E. Kerwin, former commissioner of elections in Nassau County, was among the visitors at Empire.

John McKee, owner of Crystal Ford and several other horses, returned from his home at Sterling, Ky., where he officiated at a four days' mixed trotting and hunting meeting as presiding judge.

Jockey R. McNamee, the apprentice rider under contract to R. T. Wilson, who won the graduating purse at Empire City recently with Vendor, was offered his choice of $25 in cash or a cup as the prize from the association for winning his first race. He took the $25, but later returned it and said he wanted the cup. The first cup offered him was too small and the association acceded to his request for a larger one. The new one has been delivered and was to have been presented today, but trainer T. J. Healey took the boy with him to Saratoga last night and the presentation will have to be postponed for a time.

LATEST SARATOGA GOSSIP

Weather and Track Conditions Improving—Morvich Among Tuesday's Arrivals.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., July 25.—Weather conditions showed considerable improvement here today, but the tracks were still sticky as the result of two days of almost steady rain. The main course had a firm bottom to it and a majority of the trainers used it in preference to the Oklahoma training track. The sun shone all day and both tracks should be in excellent condition tomorrow morning.

There were numerous arrivals from New York and other points throughout the day and the hotels are beginning to show the effect of the influx of racing people. It will be Sunday, however, before the real crowds begin to pour in, judging from the reservation lists of the leading hostelries.

The stable of Benjamin Block and Fred Burlew, headed by the Kentucky Derby winner, Morvich, unloaded this morning. There were five horses in the consignment. Morvich looks better than in a long while and appears to have benefited considerably by his let-up.

Six more horses were added to the J. S. Cosden establishment this morning. They came from Empire City.

Albert Simons brought four horses from the Yonkers track. He came in himself, accompanied by Placide Frigerio.

The twenty-three yearlings which left the Xalapa Farm, Paris, Ky., last Saturday afternoon arrived here early this morning and were taken to E. F. Simms' new training grounds near the race track. They are a good-looking band and appear none the worse for their long journey. There was not a sick horse among them.

W. H. Karrick has nineteen horses under his care at the main track, while his son Kenneth is in charge of seven more at the Oklahoma course. These stables have been on the scene since the close at Aqueduct.

H. T. Griffin, trainer for the James B. Smith stable, was an arrival from Empire City. He came on to receive the large band of yearlings from the H. T. Oxnard stud, which will be offered for sale at the coming auctions.

Edward K. Thornton was another to get in from Empire City, where he stopped off for a few days en route from Kentucky.

Trainer Tom Healey came up from New York last night and after putting the R. T. Wilson horses here through their paces this morning returned to Empire City tonight. Healey had the entire outfit of Wilson yearling on the Horse Haven track and they presented a splendid appearance. He will ship the remainder of the Wilson string here from Yonkers later in the week.

Trainer Fred Taral journeyed to Empire City this morning. He went back to saddle a horse tomorrow.

Frank Moore of Newport, Ky., joined the Blue Grass delegation here today.

RACING CONTRIBUTES TO THE NEVADA ROAD FUND

RENO, Nev., July 25.—As a result of the recent race meeting the state highway fund was enriched by 8 per cent of the total amount of money passing through the parimutuel machines, as provided by the Nevada law regulating horse racing.

The report of J. J. McCormack, secretary of the Nevada Racing Commission, shows that $1,075,933 passed through the machines during the twenty-three days of racing, and of this amount $86,074.64 was taken out, representing the 8 per cent "take" allowed by the state law. Of this $86,074.64 one-sixth goes to the state highway fund, leaving a balance of $71,623.87 as the Silver State Jockey Club's share.

FIELD DAY FOR M. FATOR

Rides Five Winners Out of Six Mounts at Cleveland—Fifty-Fifty Wins Another.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 25.—Closing with a brilliant burst of speed through the stretch, J. J. Hertz's speedy three-year-old Fifty-Fifty scored his second success at this meeting when he captured the $1,200 Western Reserve Purse, which featured the card at Maple Heights Park this afternoon. Prince Welles cut out a sizzling early pace, with John S. Reardon in closest pursuit. When straightened out for the run home Fifty-Fifty gradually wore down the leaders and, after a thrilling finish, got up in the closing strides to beat Prince Welles by a neck. John S. Reardon held the others safe for the short end of the purse. Fifty-Fifty's race was all the more creditable considering the fact that he ran the three-quarters in 1:12, which marked a new record for the course.

Jockey M. Fator, who rode the Hertz representative, established a riding record for the track when he piloted five of his six mounts to victory. He was only beaten by a nose with Old Sinner in his other attempt. Fator s string of victories commenced with the running of the second, in which he piloted Kirk Lady to an easy victory after leading by a wide margin practically throughout.

Under Fator's skillful handling Panaman scored a good victory in the third race, although outrun by Icon until midway of the stretch.

Nashotah, his fourth successful mount, was reserved until the last quarter was reached in the sixth race. When called upon Nashotah took command an eighth out and drew away decisively near the end.

The Polk stable rider completed his brilliant afternoon's performance when he landed Colonel Matt home an easy winner in the concluding event. Colonel Matt led by a wide margin from end to end.

An accident marred the running of the sixth race. As the field, when closely bunched, was passing the three-eighths post, W. F. Knebelkamp's Buckingham fell through the fence into the infield. He was so badly injured he was destroyed. Jockey Scheffel, who had the mount, suffered a dislocated wrist.

Several horses changed hands via the claiming route. H. Neusteter claimed Don Dodge for $1,100 out of the seventh race. H. Neal claimed Nashotah for $1,100 out of the sixth race, and L. M. Reuter secured Babylonian for $1,000 out of the first race.

Magician was so badly kicked by Mavourneen while at the post for the fifth race that he will be on the shelf for some time.

Fornovo and Fringe ran in the colors of J. W. Smith today for the first time. J. McGovern is now the trainer of those horses.

Jockeys F. Lux and M. Fator were set down for three days each by the starter for disobedience while at the post.

T. Johnston was fined $25 for failure to carry the proper equipment on Will Soon here on Monday.

MISHAP TO CLEOPATRA FOAL

Reports from Sun Briar Court are to the effect that the suckling foal by Sun Briar—Cleopatra bowed a leg recently. This was said to be an exceptionally fine youngster and the first of the produce of W. R. Coe's noted mare.

POPULAR TIPPITY WITCHET

Provides Surprise by Capturing Main Race at Kenilworth Park.

Fast Early Racing Beats Miss Jemima—Lunetta Breaks the Winning Streak of Petie.

WINDSOR, Ont., July 25.—L. T. Bauer's Tippity Witchet, always a popular racer both in Canada and the United States, furnished quite a surprise at Kenilworth Park when he captured the principal race of today's program, taking the measure of E. F. Whitney's Mainmast, J. K. L. Ross' Baby Grand, which finished second and third respectively, while the favorite, Miss Jemima, was badly beaten. The race was at seven-eighths of a mile and provided a thrilling contest, in which the winner got up in the final strides to win by a short neck. Tippity Witchet was ridden by G. Walls and was accorded but scant consideration by the public and returned a dividend of $86.40 for the usual investment. In winning today's race Tippity Witchet ran the seven-eighths in 1:26, which marked a new track record, clipping two-fifths from the mark established by Diadema.

The big disappointment of the race was Miss Jemima, the warmly suported favorite. She finisned fourth and her defeat was due to suicidal tactics of her rider, who permitted her to race the quarter 22⅘, the half in 47, despite her heavy burden of 120 pounds. The result was when the last quarter was reached the mare had little left, nor did Mainmast, for that matter, and old Tippity Witchet, which had been wisely saved behind the leaders, gave a flash of old speed, just long enough to snatch victory from Mainmast, with Baby Grand right at their heels.

OIL MAN'S TOUGH LUCK.

The third race, the secondary attraction of the day, was a thriller for the spectators. First of all they were thrown into a frenzy of despair when the odds-on favorite, Oil Man, was practically left at the post, and then their enthusiasm knew no bounds when the Pelican Stable's three-year-old, overcoming the early handicap, just failed to get up in a finish that proved more trying to his admirers than it apparently did to the colt. It was without doubt the most exciting race witnessed in Canada this year. While the spectators were disappointed over the defeat of the favorite, the great finish of the colt took the sting out of it and convinced all that with a even start Oil Man would have surely won.

The long winning streak of Petie was broken this afternoon when she failed to gather a portion of the purse and finished a distant last. Lunetta proved to be the winner and at the end had a two-length lead over Make Up, while Eleanor S. was third. The mile and seventy yards route was run in 1:43, establishing a new track record and clipping one-fifth from the old mark of Mint Cat.

The Brookdale Stable's Vespra scored an easy victory from a small band of Canadian-breds at five-eighths. Prismar took second place, with Anaprisa third. The winner dominated the running throughout.

NICKNAME BY INCHES.

Nickname accounted for a purse for the Thorncliffe Stable in a desperate finish with Racket in the opening dash. Mabel K. was third.

Trainer M. C. Kelly reported that the exercise Boy B. Buelle left his employ without permission and warns other trainers not to harbor him. Kelly has a three-year contract on the boy.

C. T. Worthington has decided to ship his stable from here to Lexington, where his horses will be rested up until the resumption of racing in Kentucky in the fall.

Several stables will remain here until the next Windsor meeting, among them that of W. Perkins and A. L. Austin.

A rumor has been going the rounds that a ten day's running meeting will be given in connection with the Michigan State Fair in Detroit in September.

Jockey Joe Rowan left for his home at Mineola, L. I., where he will remain until racing is resumed at Hamilton.

The charter of the Hamilton Athletic and Driving Association has been purchased by T. Duffy of Hamilton. The latter has no intention of using it for running horse purposes, but may use it for harness horse racing.

Jockey H. Shilling, who has been ailing all summer, left for his home at Paris, Texas, to recuperate. It is doubtful if Shilling will be seen in the saddle again, as he finds it difficult to keep down to riding weight.

Frank Garrett is sending the two-year-old Princess Anne to Maryland, where she will be turned out for the remainder of the year.

Belario came out of his last race in bad condition and will be laid up for a while. It is doubtful if he comes back to the races

"EXILE" ON LAST JOURNEY

Death Claims Dr. M. M. Leach, Veterinary Surgeon and Writer on Thoroughbred Breeding.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 25.—Dr. M. M. Leach, widely known as a writer upon the subject of thoroughbred horse breeding, formerly a practicing veterinary surgeon, died this morning, the result of pneumonia, at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York. Dr. Leach, just after the running of the Kentucky Derby last May, departed for England, with commissions to buy thoroughbred mares for Walter J. Salmon and others. He returned to New York last week and on Friday his family in this city was advised of his critical illness. The body will be brought to Lexington for burial in Lexington cemetery. Dr. Leach is survived by his widow, two sons and a daughter, who reside here, and a brother and sister, who reside at Bury St. Edmond, England.

Dr. Leach several years ago made an unsuccessful venture into racing in Australia with a string of horses purchased in this country. Leaving Australia he visited South Africa and returned to the United States via England. His articles appeared usually under the pen name "Exile." He was intensely pro-British and, though he was long a resident of Kentucky, retains his British citizenship. The British thoroughbred never had anywhere in all the world a more ardent admirer and advocate than was Dr. Leach, and his disparaging statements about American thoroughbred horses and the breeders thereof caused him to be not well liked by many of the latter. He nevertheless boldly expounded his theories and unhesitatingly asserted his opinions, both in and out of print. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed.

GOODWOOD STEWARDS CUP IS WON BY TETRAMETER

LONDON, England, July 25.—The Stewards Cup, a handicap with $5,000 added at three-quarters, was run at Goodwood today and resulted in an easy victory for Sir Hugh McCalmont's Tetrameter, 5, by The Tetrarch—Mandola. Lord Wolverton's The Night Patrol was second and Sir H. Cunliffe-Owen's Morning Light third.

The weather was clear and bright and a fairly large crowd turned out for the racing.

Thirty horses started in the Cup. When the race was half run jockey G. Smith sent Tetrameter to the lead and increasing his advantage steadily under restraint the horse came to the finish in a canter four lengths in front of The Night Patrol, while Morning Light just saved third place by a head from King George's Weather Vane. The remainder of the field was pretty well strung out, with Lord Jersey's Scamp, quoted at 100 to 7 in the wagering, bringing up the rear. Tetrameter, Morning Light and Weather Vane were joint favorites at post time at 10 to 1. The Night Patrol was quoted at 50 to 1. Following is a summary of the race:

Sir Hugh McCalmont's Tetrameter, ch. h, 5, by The Tetrarch—Mandola (G. Smith), 105 pounds, 10 to 1 1

Lord Wolverton's The Night Patrol, b. c, 4, by Stedfast—Dark Flight (Wragg), 103 pounds, 50 to 1 2

Sir H. Cunliffe-Owen's Morning Light, br. f, 3, by Sunstar—Desmodium (Brown), 103 pounds, 10 to 1 3

The Gatwick Stakes, at a mile and a half, for three-year-olds, resulted in a victory for Lord Astor's Tamar, which was quoted at the prohibitive odds of 1 to 8.
